

The social interest of the week is absorbidly centered in the Horse show, which, with its inauguration as an indoor and evening event, assumes its proper placeas a superjatively important society affair. With these brilliant nightly assemblages of fashion and wealth, there is little opportunity and less inclination for entertaining other than that of the most informal description. Smart gowns without number will make their first appearance at the Horse show, where the parade of fashion will rival that of fine borsefiesh; but the dress occasion of the favored flower in the dining room,

The card party and informal dance given by the Warwick Club Thursday evening was a very pleasant affair. Twenty card tables were occupied and several guests spent the early part of the evening playing billierds in the library. Mrs. Byron Finley won the first prize at cards, and Miss Winifred Reid the consolution. Mr. Richard Liggett won the men's prize an eliborate smoking set.

The prize won by Miss Reid was a unique affair, a 'Maid in Kausas. U. S. A.' It was a doll, constructed entirely of the parts of the corn plant and was wonderfully perfect in face and figure. After the awarding of prizes, the guests adjourned to the ballroom and danced until a late hour.

The marriage of Miss Mary Hale Alsop to the Rev. Mr. William Gordon Thompson, rector of Trinity church, Independence, was solemnized Tuesday evening last in that edifice. The church was simply but artistically decorated with goldenrod, and marguerites are banked on either side of the chancel. Promptly at 6:45 o'clock Mandelssohn's wedding march ushered in the bridal party. The bride had as her only attendant, her sister, Mrs. O. M. Wight. At the altar they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Will Atwill, of Kansas City. The full Episcopal service was celebrated by Bishop Atwill.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended Eastern trip and will be absent six weeks.

It is believed by some dealers in Diamonds that the Boers will destroy the Diamond mines. If they do, the advance in prices of Diamonds will undoubtedly be very great. Pending that time it would be prudent to buy naw, especially when you can get them at last year's prices. Our stock was large and we can sell a few more at the old figures.
